

Problem 1

Write a JavaFX application drawing a snowman consisting of three balls the diameters of which are in 1:2:3 proportion. These proportions should be kept when we resize the window. The snowman should fill all the height of the window:

Do not create explicitly any event listeners (handlers); use only appropriate bindings.
